Re: United States v. Tabitha Reichert, 22 Cr. 419

Dear Chief Judge Swain:

The parties write to request that the pretrial conference scheduled for December 20, 2022, be adjourned until January 25, 2023 at 10:00 a.m. The defense additionally requests that the conference be held virtually so that the defendant does not have to travel from Pennsylvania on her limited budget. The Government has no objection.

The Government also respectfully requests that the time between today and the rescheduled conference be excluded pursuant to the provisions of the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). The Government submits that the ends of justice served by granting the proposed exclusion outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, as the proposed exclusion will allow the parties time to discuss a potential pretrial resolution of the case. Defense counsel consents to this request.

The foregoing requests are granted. The conference is hereby rescheduled for January 25, 2023, at 10:30 a.m., and will be held virtually. The Court finds pursuant to 18 U.S.C. section 3161(h)(7)(A) that the ends of justice served by an exclusion from today's date through January 25, 2023, at 10:00 a.m. outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial for the reasons stated above. Docket entry no. 32 is resolved. SO ORDERED.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York
